

Year 11 Curriculum Overview

Health and Social Care

Autumn Term
Golden Threads: Maslow's theory, Erikson's theory, multi-agency/multidisciplinary, barriers and obstacles, legislation, regulatory and public bodies.
HT1 – Mock Exams NEA Assignment 1 Task 1, Task 2, 3 1.a (i) Apply Maslow's theory to case study 1.1.a (ii) identify the case studies psychosocial stage according to Erikson 2. (a) Explain how multi-agency and multi-disciplinary partnership working could help the case study 2. (b) Explain how the case study could access health and social care services to support their health and well-being and overcome challenges 2. (c) Explain importance of families, friends and community networks on wellbeing	HT2 – MOCK EXAMS Assignment 2 Task 1 1 (a) Describe two current changing demands for care on the health and social care sector on individuals 1.(b) choose one current changing demand for care. Investigate different ways that health can social care services provide support across all life stages, both locally and nationally

Year 11 Curriculum Overview

3. (a) examine how standards legislation, regulatory and public bodies support health and social care workers who are working with the case study 3 (b) Examine the use of care values and recommend how the practitioners in the case study could promote these in their work. Revision guides sent home for mock exam period after half term
---	--

Year 11 Curriculum Overview

Spring Term
Golden Threads: Professionals, settings, allied health professionals, ancillary support staff, compliance with statutory regulation, codes of conduct, policies and procedures, duty of care
HT3 – 2. Investigate the career routes and roles of two key professionals from health and social care 3. Create a safeguarding factsheet to support the key professionals working with individuals facing one of the listed changing demands on care. 4. Discuss possible long-term effects of the current changing demands for care on the health and social care sector End of NEA Assignment 1 and 2	HT4 Revision of unit 1 past papers and addressing misconceptions.

Year 11 Curriculum Overview

Summer Term
Golden Threads: Consolidation of knowledge	Golden Threads: Consolidation of knowledge
HT5- Further revision and reteach of key concepts of unit 1.	HT6 – Final Written Exam May/June